Our first nominee for Honorary Membership in South Dakota FCCLA has given countless hours to the association over the years. She brings out the best in all around her. As a past FACS teacher and FCCLA advisor at the Parkston FCCLA chapter, she has molded students into developed leaders. She continues to work with South Dakota FCCLA by presenting workshops at region and state meetings. Please help me in congratulating _____ of the All About U Adoptions agency and welcoming her to the stage to accept the Honorary Membership in South Dakota Association of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Congratulations to _____!

The first nominee for Honorary Membership in South Dakota FCCLA has volunteered his time and talents over the past 31 years. During this time, he has chaperoned and judged at numerous National meetings. Over the years, he has judged at numerous State Leadership Conferences. His latest contributions have been the creation of numerous FCCLA public relations materials for region and state meetings. Each time this honoree is asked to create an item, he always graciously says “yes,” and each of these items is used to promote FCCLA and aids in the development of future family, career and community leaders for SD FCCLA. Please help me in congratulating _____ of Redfield and welcome him to the stage to accept Honorary Membership in the South Dakota Association of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Congratulations _____!

The next nominee for Honorary Membership in South Dakota FCCLA is a devoted volunteer and advisor to the state association. This nominee is a past Board of Directors chair, past FACS teacher and FCCLA advisor. She is one of the key advisors that leads the Virtual-DIAL Chapter and guides those members to success. She has been the Current Trends advisor for many, many years bringing success to our association through the leadership in our chapter. Her eager attitude and commitment to volunteering is a trait we value.
